

INFORMATION SHEET

Quaker Conference on Torture, Guilford College June 2-4 2006

The conference: The Quaker Initiative to End Torture presents this conference to provide current information and create action for change. We have a simple schedule geared to inform without overwhelming. Careful support for all attenders to have new awareness without the despair or discouragement this topic generates has been foremost in our planning. This is the beginning of a long important work we hope you will join in.

Venue: The conference will be held at Guilford College, Greensboro NC. The college is making available its brand new apartment facility, all single rooms, with a community center adjoining. The address is at 5800 W Friendly Ave Greensboro, NC 27410!

For those who wish to stay in a hotel the Clarion Hotel 336 299 7650 approximately 3 miles away. Please make your own arrangement at the hotel.

Dates and times: The conference will begin with dinner at 5:00 PM on Friday June 2nd (registration from 2:00 PM to 7:00 PM) and end with lunch on Sunday June 4th.

Registration: To register please go to the QUIT website www.quit-torture-now.org Susan Lees at Quaker House in Fayetteville, NC will be handling registration. To register or for any questions regarding registration please contact 910-323-3912 this is both a phone and fax. You can also email gpr@quaker.org. Registration fee before April 28th is $100. After April 28th it will be $125. Please note that any cancellation after April 28th will result in a $50.00 penalty.

Bedding: You can order bedding from the college at a cost of $10.00, you can do this when you register. We recommend you bring your own pillows as they are in short supply. The rooms have kitchens with microwave and fridge but no pots, pans, plates etc.

Getting There: Guilford College is easily reached from the Greensboro Piedmont Triad International Airport, three miles west; from Interstate 40, two miles south; or from Interstate 85, eight miles southeast. A nearby Amtrak station affords daily access to major cities throughout the Southeast. For directions go to Guilford website at www.guilford.edu. The college is within a half-day's drive of both the seacoast and the Great Smoky mountains. It is an easy cab ride from the airport to the college and costs approx $10.00.

Display table: Display tables will be available for organizations wishing to share materials with the participants. Please indicate on the registration form if you want space. The cost for a table is $35, for half a table is $20.

Workshops: A number of workshops will be offered at the conference. There will be an opportunity to sign up for your preferred workshop at the registration desk at the conference.